The Wanamaker Stores

To the Strangers Within Our Gates

VOU undoubtedly know Wanamaker's by name. You are stock are open to your examination, merely as things to see cordially invited to a better and closer personal ac- and admire and learn from. Service is ready on the instant you quaintance. Come and visit us.

This is not the cordiality of self-interest. We are asking you. That is a Wanamaker store-rule—good the year around. you as guests and not as customers. No one will ask you to buy anything;—no one will even look at you as if you were important city sight. The list of store features is a long expected to buy something. The whole store and the whole one, and is being added to almost daily. Here's a selection:

New Paintings Salons of 1899. To the splendid collection of famous paintings on view in the new Picture Gallery, fifth floor, we are adding this morning thirty-three new paintings. All of these were shown in the Paris Salons of this year, -many of them gained honors there.

The New Music Rooms, fifth floor. Prepared as an exhibition room for pianos, these rooms have developed into a place of almost continual music.

The stocks as a whole, especially the new dress fabrics, silks, laces, neckwear, jewelry and art goods, are an inexhaustible source of interest and information.

If in one thing more than all others, lack of complete uncompromising perfection will not stand, that one thing is shoes. They must look as if they fitted, feel as if they fitted, be fashionable and wear thoroughly. Our shoes answer "prepared" to every test. Two stores -one of unusual values for regular prices; one of unusual prices for regular values on the Fifth Floor:

Men's $3.50 Shoes for $2.35 Patent leather: laced, with welted soles: full round English trees and all the car-marks of of good shoe-making.

About Books

A Formal Exhibition of Upholsteries and Decorative Fabrics

This is a third floor showing, of importance to every one who has the slightest interest in the artistic appearance of a home. It is an object lesson in decorative possibilities. It is the result of the raking over of the markets of the average suits of this season. And whole world for the best of its hangings, upholsteries and draperies.

Every facility we possess, - and they are many and great; - every power we can control, all the experience and judgment of life-trained experts in our service, have been called upon to produce this result. We present to the attention of our public a collection of decorative fabrics rarely gathered under one roof.

Experts in the development and beautifying of interiors will appreciate this showing, but equally so will that other class of experts, which includes almost every woman who ever had a home to manage, or a room to make pleasant. Trained tastes and instinctive tastes will alike be gratified, so the thin purse with the plump one. For those whose appreciation of interior decoration lies chiefly in the enjoyment of it after it is prepared, we are equipped and ready to solve all problems, effect all details and arrive at prompt and satisfactory results. We will accept all duties of decoration presented to us, from the scheme for a window to that for an entire house. The stock from which we draw is comprehensive and vast. It includes, among all the staple goods in the newest modifications, thousands of novelties and new fancies in
